

Cindy Compert Bio

Painting from a kayak, Channel Islands, CA

Born and educated in New York, Cindy has been painting as long as she's been holding a paintbrush. She did her first commission at age 15 and after a long career in IT, she is now painting full time as she travels around the world with her partner Kevin in their self-sufficient Jeep. Getting off-road enables her to access unspoiled places that few will ever experience. Her goal is to share that beauty and inspire others.
