This Exhibition proudly recognizes "NAWA's Angel Volunteers."

"Art Angels" deliver critical services, strengthening the NAWA organization and enabling diverse voices to be seen and heard through generous contributions of time, effort, and talent. With such invaluable help, the Association has been able to support and empower women artists nationwide since 1889.

NAWA

Empowering Women Artists Since 1889

NAWA

Established in 1889 by five women artists in a NYC studio, NAWA is the first women's art organization in America. NAWA provides exhibition opportunities throughout the year and throughout the country for its members and collectors.

- NAWA fosters public awareness & interest in the visual fine arts created by women across the United States.
- Promotes culture through exhibitions, education, scholarships & awards.
- The NAWA Catalog is archived in over 10 high-profile institutions, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Museum of Modern Art, The Library of Congress, and more.
- The Jane Voorhees Zimmerli Art Museum Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey holds a permanent collection of NAWA art .
- NAWA has been empowering women artists since 1889.
- Learn more about NAWA by visiting our website: theNAWA.org
